Dealing With Estate Matters

Anyone who has had to deal with the passing of a loved one knows that the hassles are almost limitless. While it's not possible to be completely stress-free; there are some things that can be done to reduce it somewhat.

I've written several times about Mark Colgan's excellent Survivor Assistance Handbook.

In Mary Hunt's Everyday Cheapskate column today, she had info on some other similar guides to dealing with this most difficult aspect of life.

"If Something Happens to Me" by Joseph Hearn and Niel Nielsen

Kerry M. Kerstetter, CPA (referred to as The Tax Guru by other CPAs around the country) helps capitalists, investors & small business owners win the tax game. See www.TaxGuru.org for much more detailed info. Please note that Kerry does not personally agree with every item included here; but passes them along for the benefit of the readers' understanding of the varied viewpoints on the issues being discussed.
